March 8, 2009

In this newsletter, you will be introduced to our newest artist GOLI, hear about our first OPEN HOUSE and have an opportunity to purchase a wonderful Gerhard Nesvadba and receive a special gift along with the sale.

Please try and attend next Saturday's Open House. The Helping Hands Mission of Huntington Station desperately needs books for their kids to read. This is a great opportunity to visit the gallery, drop off a book, enjoy some coffee and dessert and see the unique one of a kind jewelry by Elena Hecht. It's Saturday from 7-9pm and remember to BRING A BOOK AND YOUR SWEET TOOTH!!!

Warmest regards,
James and Robert,
Co-Owners of LaMantia Gallery

Introducing Goli Mahallati

Goli Mahallati was apprenticed to Hessam Abrishami. Her paintings are created in acrylic, and exude both texture and emotion. The large flat panes of color will work in both contemporary and traditional settings.

LaMantia Gallery's First Open House and Book Drive

open house & book drive

Saturday March 14th
7:00 - 9:00pm • RSVP by Mar. 11

Remember to bring a book & your sweet tooth!

Join us for an extremely casual evening of coffee and dessert and to help a wonderful cause. The Helping Hands Mission of Huntington has been providing help and hope to the Huntington Community since 1965. As a supporter of their weekly reading program, LaMantia Gallery is asking that you bring a book when you come to our open house. Books should be geared to kids ranging from 5 to 15 years of age.

LaMANTIA GALLERY

SATURDAY MARCH 14TH FROM 7 - 9PM

Please join us for a informal evening at LaMantia Gallery's First Open House. We will be serving coffee and sweets from the Copenhagen Bakery of Northport Village. If you are able to attend, please bring a new or good conditioned childrens book for the ages of 5 to 12.

One of a kind jeweler Elena Hecht will also be donating a portion of the sale of her jewelry to the Helping Hands Mission.

REMEMBER TO BRING A BOOK AND YOUR SWEET TOOTH!!!

Gerhard Nesvadba's "Countryside in Yellow"

This wonderful landscape by Gerhard Nesvadba is titled "Countryside in Yellow." It is oil on canvas, and measures 36 x 36 including the frame. The piece sells for $2650, but is being offered at $2300 and will be accompanied by a signed bottle of Riesling. Signed by both Gerhard and Christian Nesvadba.
